Hippo transformed the poolside into a water factory and the old planter island into a toddler splash zone to increase and sustain visitor numbers and business revenue. Features included a waterball with a 4 arm mast. This is linked by a span arm to a second mast with a tipping bucket and splash board. The toddler splash zone included an arch joined by 2 interactive masts, themed squirts, interactive water channels and sensory play panels. Concordia has a total of 40 interactive water points.
